SCHOOL LIFE

AS SEEN THROUGH THE CAMERA

INTROD

N THE FUTURE we shall cherish these pages as part of a great film, later to be run over and over again in our memories. Let us peer through the lenses of a camera and visualize portraits of school life of 1941.

UCTION

The camera is a fascinating instrument; of equal fascination are the events and people here represented, which we believe will be of lasting interest to all who have posed with us the past four years.

We, as photographers, cannot, in a sense, preserve our individual school life, but we endeavour to show a reel of activities, ideals, and achievements of our world---

FEATURES

FACULTY

E FIRST FOCUS our camera on a group of efficient men and women—the Board of Education of Monongalia County. Upon the shoulders of these persons have rested the responsibilities of financing and directing the activities of the school.

Our principals and faculty members have proved to be sources of valuable counsel and friendship. They have set the high, but attainable, standards of our school and instilled in us the desire to do the very best we can.

Without them our school life would be as an undeveloped picture —the negative. They add the final touches that really make the finished photograph.

MR. DAVIS

Principal Scott H. Davis has become not only our chief executive but also every student's friend. His wit and humor have pervaded even the dullest classroom, but his sincere lectures are always respected. He received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Fairmont State Teachers' College, and a Master of Arts degree from West Virginia University. In 1938 he was principal of the high school at Wadestown. Last year he served as assistant principal here.

MR HASTINGS

Helping to keep the student body in focus is Mr. Lynn Hastings, assistant principal. We have become accustomed to seeing his familiar figure and smile as he inspects the halls. A native of Monongalia County, Mr. Hastings received his early education here and attended Fairmont State Teachers' College. He completed work for both Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts degrees at West Virginia University. From 1916 to 1931 he served as superintendent of county schools. He continued to be active as a teacher and last year was principal of Morgantown Junior High School.

CLASSES

SENIORS

One of the most important reels to be shown is the close ups of the Senior class of 1941. The head photographers were Mrs. Freda Lipkey and Miss Elizabeth Byrd. Those assisting them were James Haught, President; Jack Fleming, Vice President; Betty Wilson, Secretary; Edward Camisa, Treasurer; Sam Jacobson, Historian.

The Seniors chose a patriotic theme for the flower, motto, and colors. These are: flower, red carnation; "Guided by Old Glory," motto; and red, white, and blue, colors. The class of '41 selected two class songs one of patriotic theme by Rubyan Romine, and the other of sentimental value by Maxine Carpenter, and Mary Glass.

'41 CLASS SONGS

"THAT'S AMERICA"

In the land where men hold freedom dear,
Where no lives are shadowed by doubt or fear
That's America, the land where I was born.

In the land where loyalty and duty come first,
Where no somber planes drone or heavy bombs burst,
That's America, the land where I was born.

I'd give my life to her,
And because I'm proud of her,
I want no praises sung to the sound of beating drums.

The land where all are free,
She is ever dear to me,
No peace is shattered by the sound of heartless guns.

In the land where men hold freedom dear,
Where no lives are shadowed by doubt or fear,
That's America, the land where I was born.

—Rubyan Romine

TUNE: "I HEAR A RHAPSODY"

I'll always be with you,
Old Morgantown High;
You'll be my standard true
Until the day I die.

You've been our guiding light
That shone from afar;
You've led us in the right,
You've been our lucky star.

Of all the good times
We've shared with you
Of pals that we made
And friends we knew,

Our memories will recall
The days that are past.
Goodbye to M. H. S.
Here's to our Senior Class.

—Maxine Carpenter
Mary Glass

SOPHOMORE CLASS

The sophomore classes in the past years have not been very active. But the sophomore class of 1941 stepped right out of the tradition by giving a successful slouch dance on February 22, and planning an outing at Cooper's Rock sometime during the late spring. The class also met at the end of the year to select their Junior class officers. The class was under the direction of Mr. Joseph Vance.

HONOR SOCIETY

On one of the club reels, we find the exposure of the honor students of the school, chosen twice each year from the 11 A's, 12 B's, and 12 A's. Instead of having the traditional initiation banquet the first semester, an informal party was held and the banquet was given May 29. The club held meetings twice a month for business and social programs. The group began work this year on a book of etiquette for school functions, classroom and corridor conduct. Students are chosen for membership for outstanding performances in citizenship, scholarship, leadership, and character.

Action! Lights and Camera! The A. O. O. Club's here.
Our interest is the business world, but fun and play are
Our lot, too; as parties, outings, weiner roasts are part of all the things we do.

Commercial girls in '34 were enterprising souls,
Like other students in our school, they reached for higher goals and organized a group for fun,
Until we now have grown from that small group of eight or nine, encouraged by our sponsor kind; we hope the camera has found us
Best and biggest of all clubs in 1941.

RED AND BLUE JOURNAL

Recording the scenario for the fans of the Morgantown High School, the Red and Blue Journal Staff published a paper approximately twenty times during this current school year.

Miss Teresa Broderick, as director, aids the actors in their tasks of portraying their particular roles in the cast. Miss Estelle Randall acts as promoter on the business side.

This production has won the First Honors High School Publication State University Award for eight consecutive years.

Marian Wilson was editor of the script during the first semester and Gertrude Roby and Fern Hall as co-editors succeeded her the second semester.

PEP SOCIETY

A reel just developed unfolds the story of the Pep Society formed under the direction of Miss Dorothy Smith, who was physical education teacher in the Twenties.

The club was reorganized in 1931 by a group of Senior girls who opened the membership to undergraduates under the sponsorship of Mrs. Elizabeth Peck.

The aim of the club is to promote school activities and arouse school spirit. Pep stands for P- personality, E- enthusiasm, P- popularity.

A "Sadie Hawkins" dance was given in the girl's gym, on May 10.

THESPIANS

The director of the productions is Troupe 27 of the National Thespians.

The first Thespians production of the year was "Men Must Fight," a timely play by Reginald Lawrence and S. K. Lauren.

The Thespians assisted the Juniors with their Christmas play, "Why The Chimes Rang."

To celebrate National Drama Week, the active and Alumni chapters held a banquet in the Hotel Morgan, and presented an assembly.

Mr. Thomas Horwitz was presented in a lecture-demonstration on make-up.

"Spring Dance," the delightful comedy by Philip Barry, was presented late in March.

The Thespians entertained at their own spring dance early in May to bring production to a close.

MASQUERS

Make-up and props bring to mind the most photogenic group of dramatists, the Masquers.

The purpose of this club is to promote dramatic activity in the high school. This club's motto is a statement by William Shakespeare "No profit grows where there's no pleasure taken."

On March 7 the club presented "Best Years," a three act play by Raymond Van Sickle. Masquers in the cast were Doris Hood, John Jolliffe, Carolyn Henry, Clinton Gregory, Lois Pickens, Roger Vandervort, Virginia LeRoy, Robert Crawford, Maxine Carpenter, and Jordan Urdanoff.

The club's semi-formal dance was held in May.

LIBRARY CLUB

The historical and research work was handled by the Library Club, organized in 1934 under the leadership of the present sponsor, Miss Elizabeth Lawrence. The purpose is to promote closer social relations among the library assistants.

To become an assistant, a student must maintain a high level of school work and a high citizenship rating.

Activities of this year consisted of two informal dances, both of which were held outside the school.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The Home Economics Club is now under photo-flood lights—bringing into vision H. E. C. signs, blue and bronze ribbons, and lighted candles.

The present sponsor, Miss Erbie Albright, organized the club in the year 1925. In 1929 the club became affiliated with the West Virginia Home Economics Association.

Records for the year 1940-41 reveal service projects for the Home Economics Department, High School and community; such as Red Cross magazines for the library, narcissus bulbs for the hospitals, and a party for needy children.

Annual social events included: tea for new faculty members, St. Valentine Dance, initiation parties, formal spring dance, and spring meeting at Jackson's Mill.

GIRL RESERVES

The photographer caught the members of the Girl Reserves in a fleeting moment.

The Girl Reserve organization is one which attempts to provide for a three-fold development of its members. A Girl Reserve believes if she develops her body, mind, and spirit equally she will have a well-rounded personality. She believes in finding and giving her best and in honoring God, her country, and her community at all times.

The club engaged in the provision of Christmas and Thanksgiving for the poor, a mother and daughter banquet, a co-ed dance, an annual doughnut sale and many other activities which were of service to the school.

HI-Y CLUB

When the lenses are focused on the Hi-Y Club it is discovered that it is a national organization, a branch of the Y. M. C. A. Its purpose is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character. This year the club was host to the State Older Boy's conference March 28, 29, 30.

The activities of the club included the presentation of their eleventh annual minstrel, the Hi-Y dance, a slouch dance, Father and Son Banquet, and attendance at church in a body one Sunday each month.

PALETTE AND BRUSH

Tinters and designers of color film are the members of Pallette and Brush Art Club. The purpose of this group is to help in arousing and preserving an interest in the many fields pertaining to art, and the betterment of the school.

The club is almost entirely made up of this year's new members. The main activity of the club this year was to sponsor a traveling art exhibit in which separate displays were placed in each of the home rooms and moved weekly. The purpose of this exhibit was to acquaint the students and faculty with the work done in the art department. Mr. Herbert Gloss, the new art teacher, was co-sponsor with Mrs. Cornelia Waggoner.

US AND CO.

A time exposure reveals the Us & Co as an active club in school affairs.

The members of Us & Co had charge of the gate during football season. The annual slouch dance to which the Hi-Y was invited was quite a success. The Intramural basketball team was one of the best but they couldn't click. A semi-formal dance was held as a formal invitation to the new members.

For their annual production Us & Co presented the delightful two act comedy, "Go Fly A Kite," which was adapted from the Mask and Wig Show of the University of Pennsylvania.

KEY CLUB

In the rotogravure section of the Mohigan, we have the Key Club. It is an organization for Junior and Senior girls under the direction of Miss Rebecca Wade. The club, first organized in 1934, aims to promote a spirit of congeniality between girls of similar interests, to further school spirit, and to aid in benefiting the general welfare of the community.

The annual semi-formal program dance was held in the girl's gymnasium on November 30. The girls also sang a song composed by one of its members, Rubyan Romine, for the assembly program, February 27.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Handling the executive part of the business is the Student Council, composed of the presidents of the home-rooms. These students help to decide the policy of the school.

This year the council sponsored Parent's Night, cooperated with the Library Club in urging every home-room to buy a book for the library, and exchanged visits with the University High council. The council began work on a plan to put into effect a new locker system.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSN.

From the dark-room we bring the reel of the G. A. A., a group which upholds ideals of sportsmanship, tolerance, and friendliness, and helps each girl live a happier life.

In October their calendar opened with a spaghetti supper. Through voluntary contributions, from students, they purchased a radio victrola for noon-hour recreation and open house.

On December 13, a colorful Mardi Gras was given in both gymnasiums. The members furnished and redecorated a clubroom. On March 24-25 initiation ceremonies were held. A "Stardust Prom" with stars, blue and silver, and spotlights transformed the gymnasium on April 25. May 3 found visitors attending an invitation Play Day. The final scenes are of a glorious May Festival—a lovely queen and her court.

BOYS' CIVIC CLUB

One of the still-life shots is that of the Boy's Civic Club.

The club was reorganized in the fall of 1940. There were eleven old members from the preceding year, and later at an initiation, nineteen boys were inducted.

During the year the club helped the G. A. A. with the Mardi Gras. The club had charge of the Armistice Day assembly program in the auditorium.

The club had a good basketball season this year losing only one game out of six played. The team played at University High School, Sabraton, Junior High School, and a preliminary game with the High School scrubs.

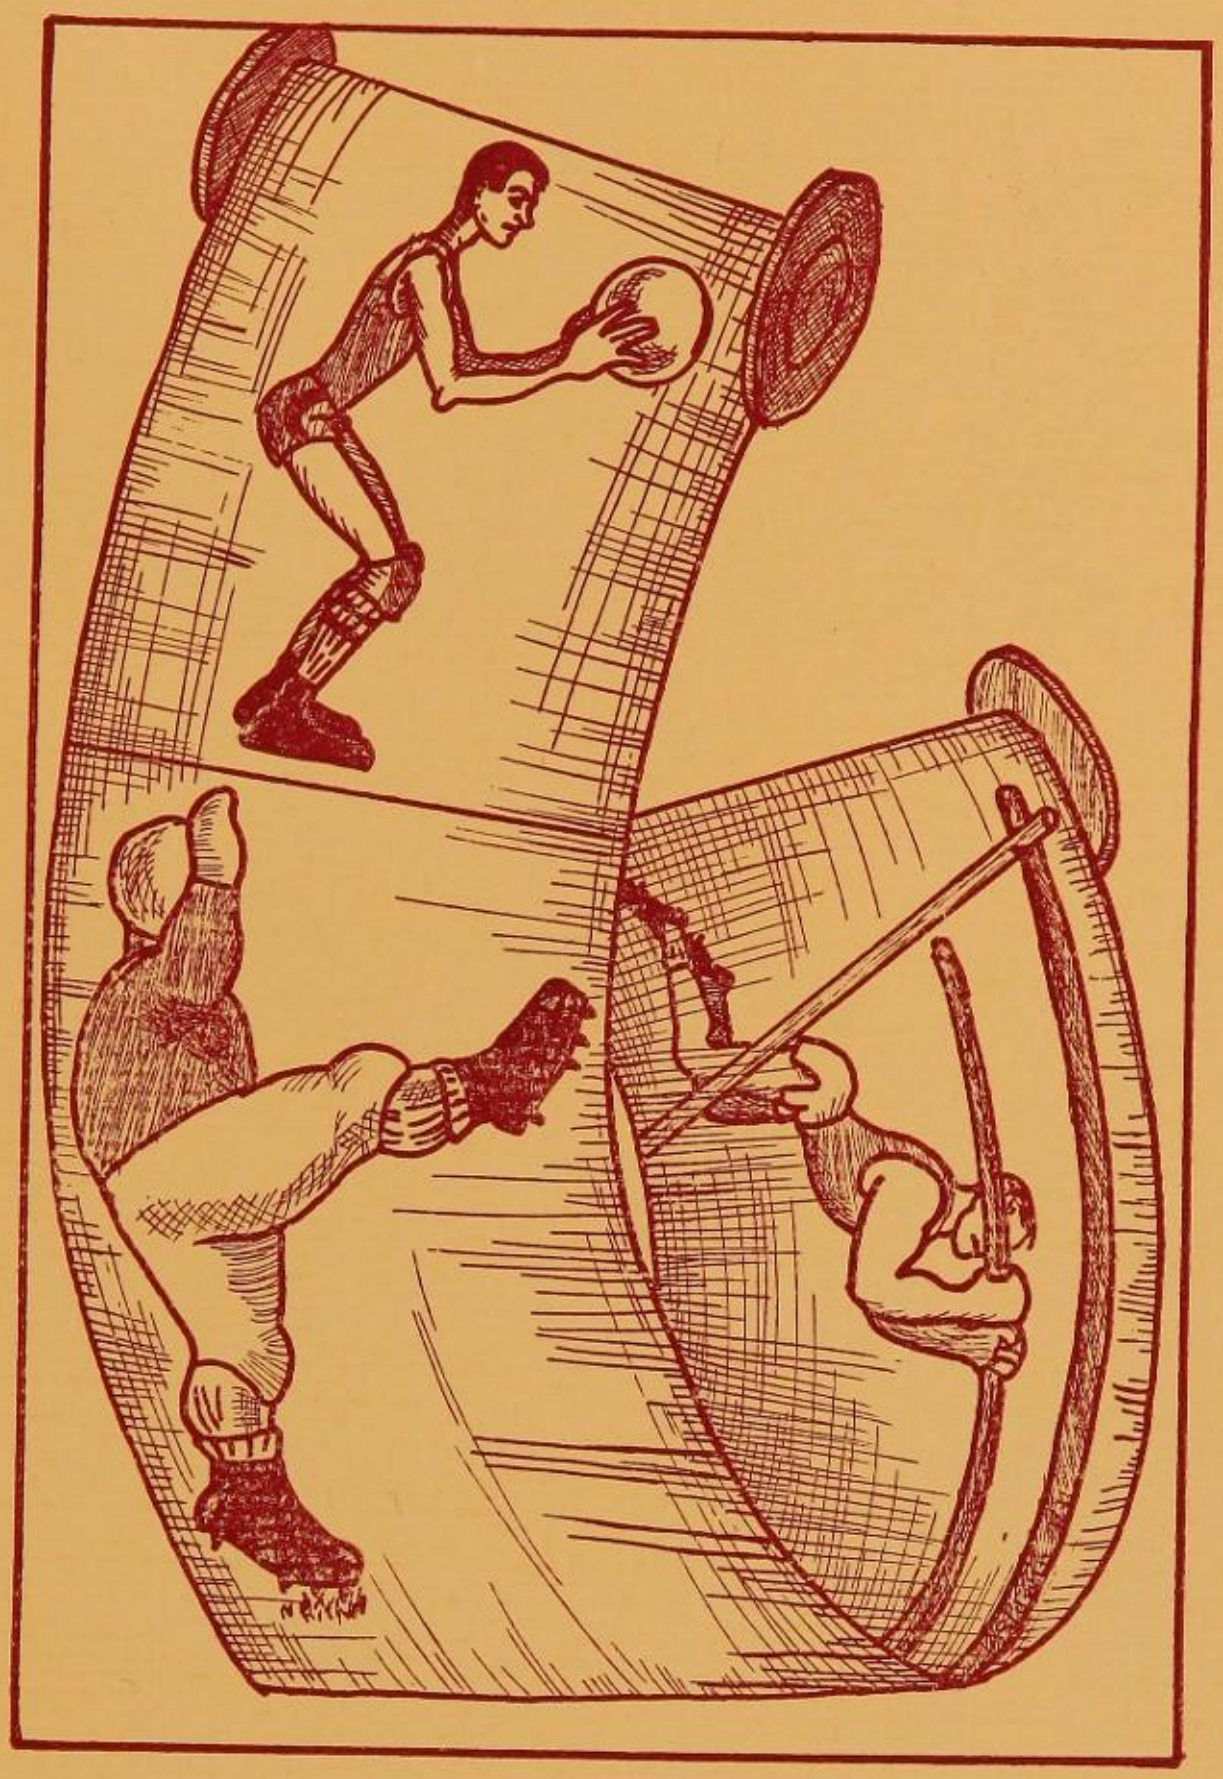
CLUB ACTIVITIES

Clubs and Activities of Morgantown High School are classified as service. special interest, social, honor, credit, and class.

Students are restricted to a total membership of two clubs from the entire group, but they may be elected to the National Honor Society and they may also take part in activities for credit.

Each year an Inter-Club Dance is sponsored by an inter-club committee. This year Reed Raines and his orchestra furnished the music for a very enjoyable dance. The Boys gymnasium, in which the event was held was gaily decorated with Spring blossoms and pastel streamers. Miss Katherine Lemley served as sponsor and presidents or representatives of the various clubs made up the committee. Faculty sponsors and parents were the chaperons.

Several meetings of club heads were held this year to devise plans for better support of school affairs. There are approximately 25 clubs numbering 30 members unless the group is honorary.



ATHLETICS

COACHES

ARTHUR H. CLYDE

Head coach of football, basketball, track and Athletic Director

JOHN ROBERTS

Assistant coach of football, basketball, and track.

STANLEY BAKER

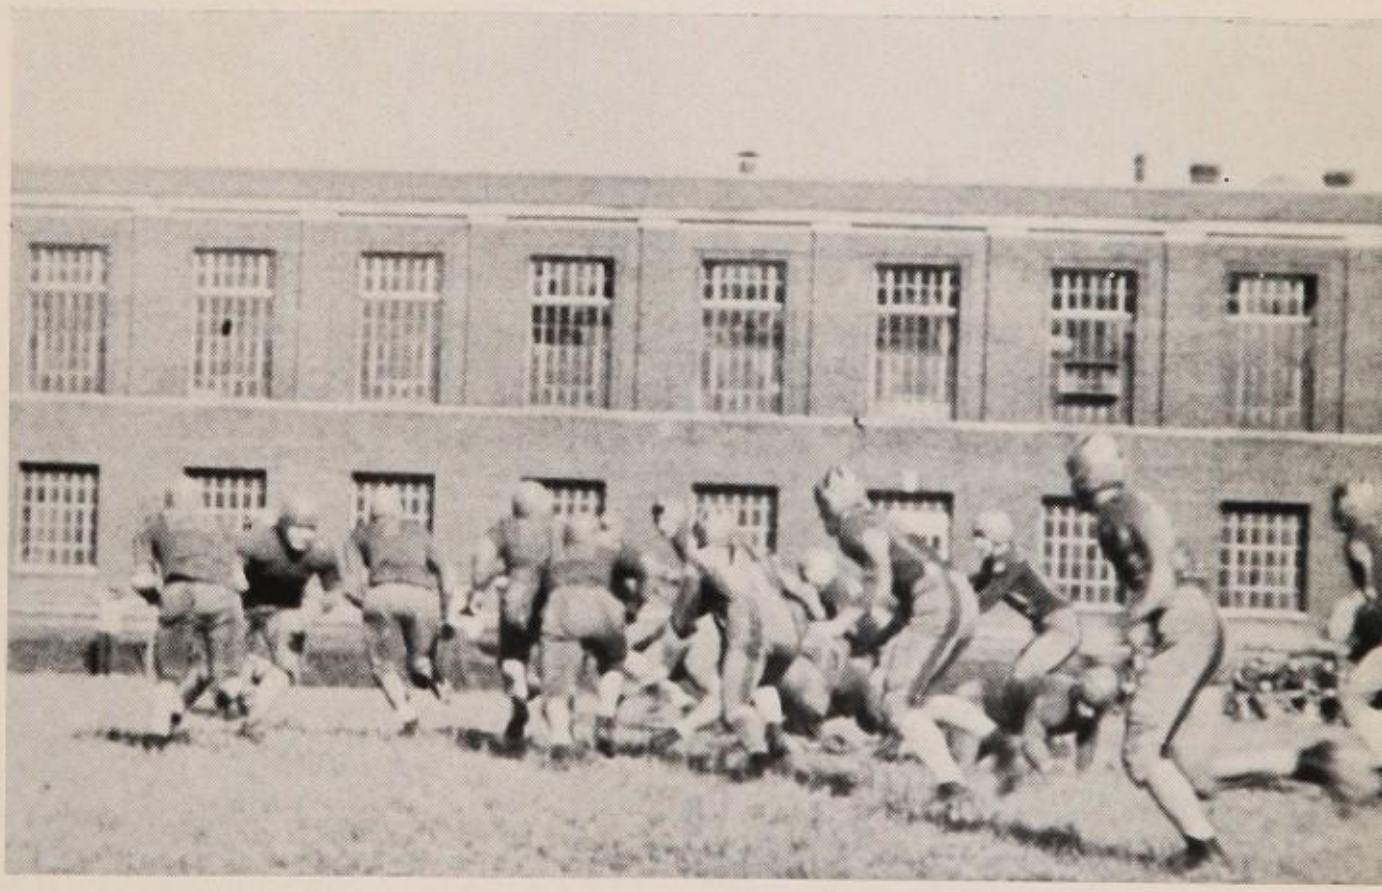
Assistant football coach.

Coach Arthur H. Clyde has been at the head of Morgantown High School's three sport teams—football. basketball, and track—for nineteen years. He was named president of the State Coaches' Association a second time this year.

The genial M. H. S. boss began his coaching career at McKeesport, Pa., High where he turned out a state championship basketball team, then was tutor at Cameron High School before coming to Morgantown.

Clyde received his education and participated in all athletics at Geneva College, West Virginia University, University of Michigan, and University of Illinois.

Winning many Big Ten Titles, the 1927 State grid crown, and the 1940 State track championship, Coach Clyde's teams have made him today one of the top-flight scholastic coaches in West Virginia.



Jack Roberts, director of M. H. S. physical education, assists Coach Clyde in all sports . . . He has been here seven years . . . turned out another fine sports carnival this season . . . Roberts is a graduate of Morgantown High and West Virginia University.

Stanley Baker, better known as "Tuffy," was in his second year of coaching M. H. S. Jay-Vees in football the past fall . . . Baker has been a great help to Coach Clyde, teaching mostly sophomores and juniors . . . He received his education at Morgantown High School and West Virginia University.

FOOTBALL

Morgantown High School's 1940 football machine rode through one of its best grid seasons in many a year, winning six games, tying Wheeling, and dropping two close verdicts. The Clydemen placed third in the Big Ten Conference with four wins in six starts.

SUMMARY

MORGANTOWN 39—MASONTOWN 0

The Red and Blue eleven ran roughshod over a light Masontown team by a 39 to 0 score in the season opener. Morgantown tallied twice in each the first and second quarters, and once in the final two periods. Scoring mostly on long runs, Ramblin' Ralph Albertazzie crossed the goal line three times, Paul Hoskins twice, and John Knapp once.

MORGANTOWN 25—KINGWOOD 0

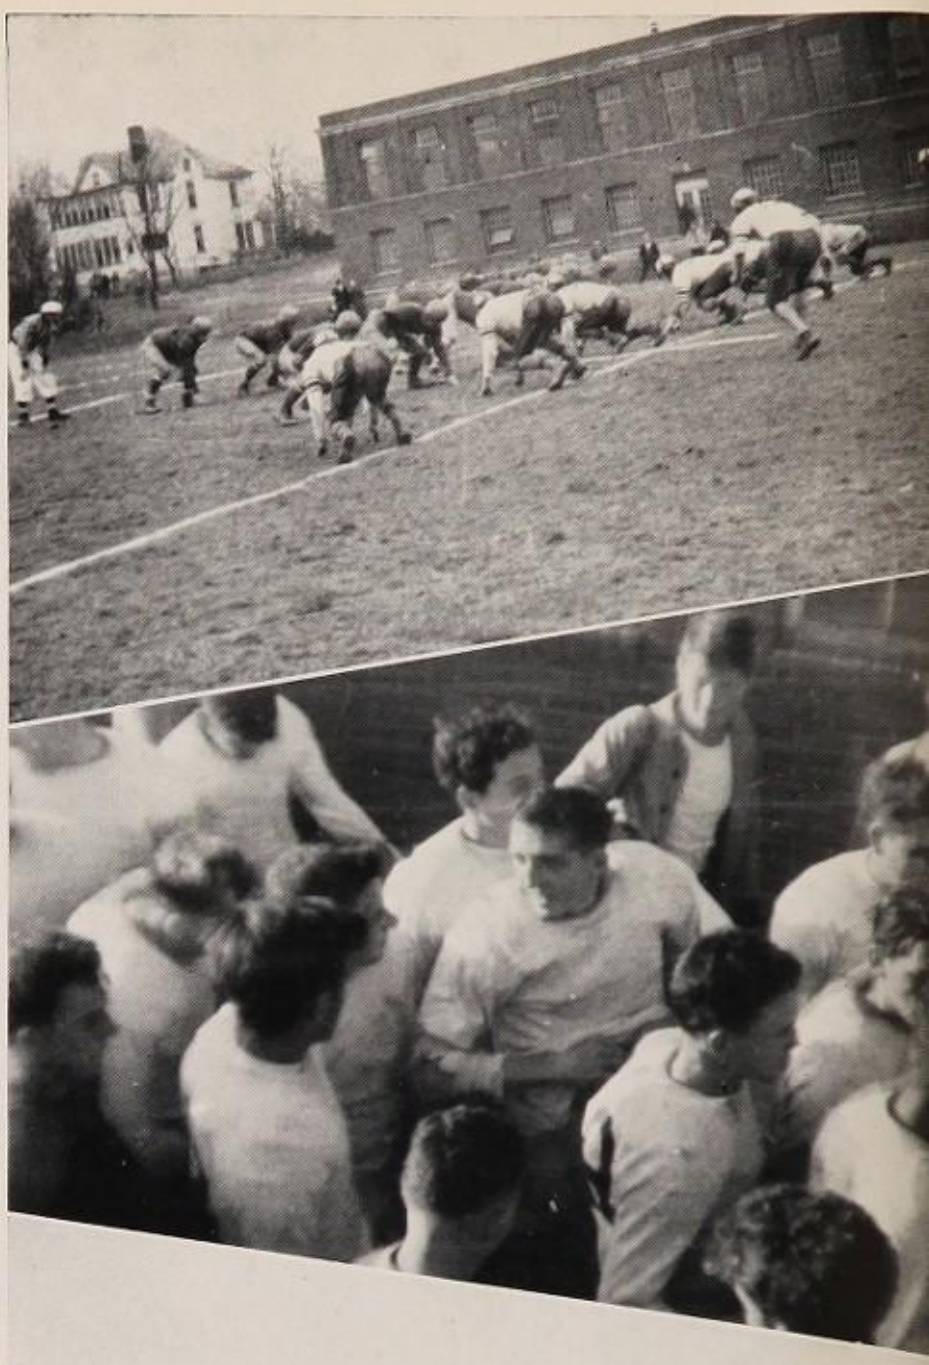
Morgantown proved its supremacy over Preston County foes in its second start, regisgtering a 25-0 victory over Kingwood High's Stags. The Clydemen scored in every period with two touchdowns by Albertazzie, one by Knapp and Scott, and Albertazzie's placement.

MORGANTOWN 0—WHEELING 0

Outweighed almost 10 pounds per man, the local footballers outplayed Wheeling's big Golds in every department but had to be content with a 0-0 deadlock. Morgantown threatened to score in the final moments. Paul Hoskins, regular halfback, was on the sidelines nursing an injury.

MORGANTOWN 19—EAST FAIRMONT 0

Playing away for the first time on October 4, Morgantown High continued to keep its record unblemished by turning back the East Fairmont Bees, 19 to 0, in a Big Ten night game. Ralph Christopher's 85-yard sprint, a 59-yard touchdown run by Albertazzie, and a line plunge by Knapp produced the M. H. S. points.



Springer, Bill—Senior tackle . . . He had a great season and looked better than any lineman that played here . . . Bill was captain for many games . . . He was given Big Ten honorable mention.

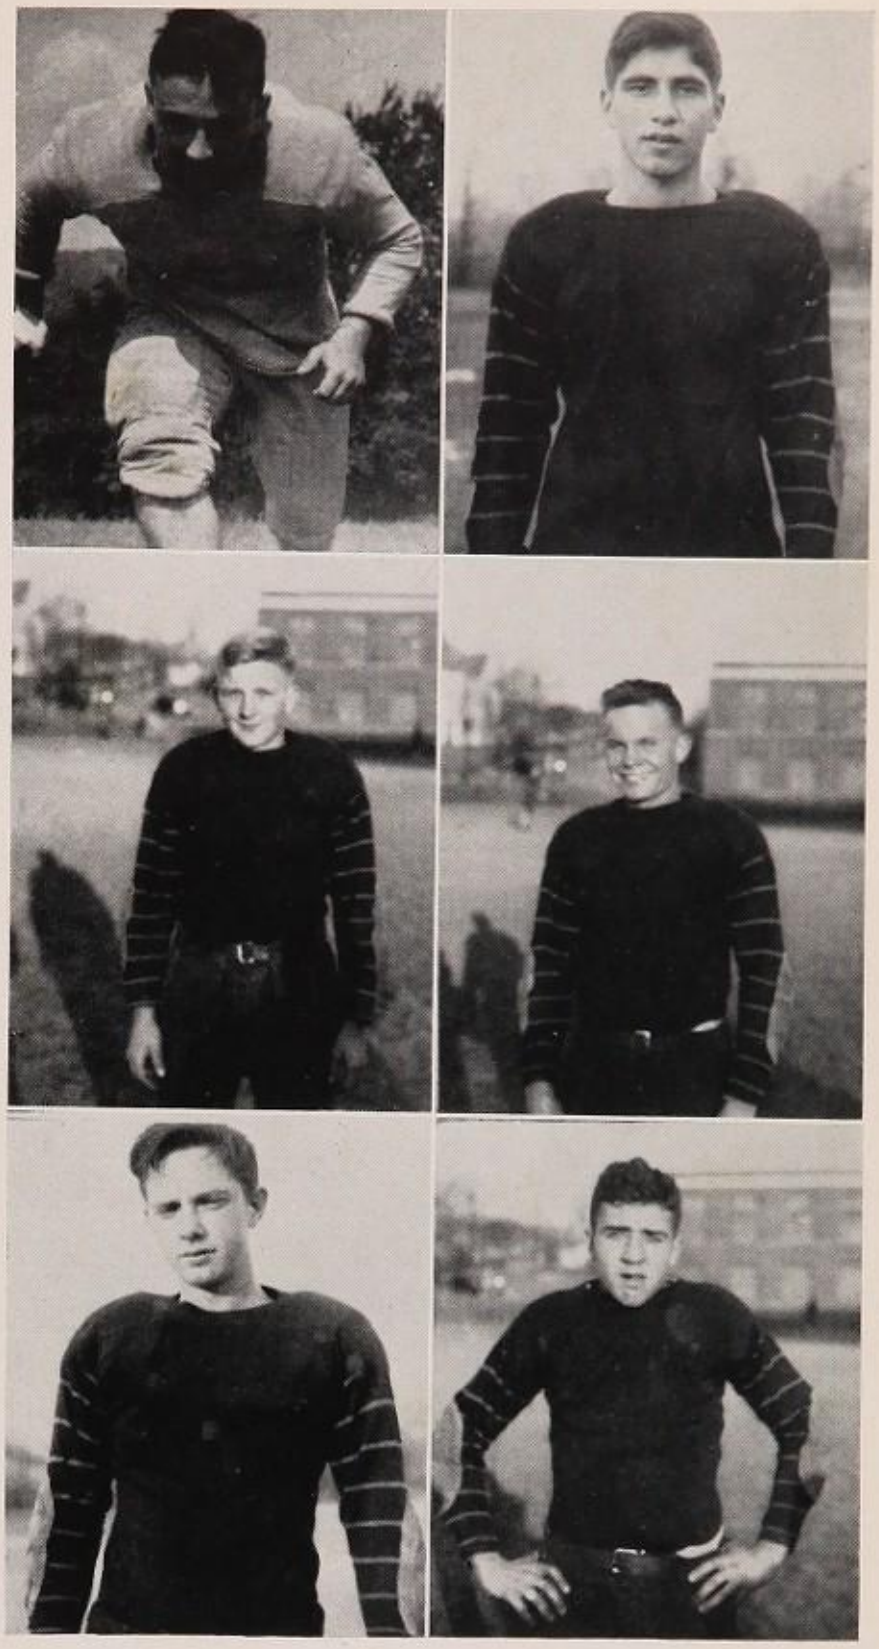
Zuccari, Memmo—Senior guard . . . "Zuc" was probably the most under-rated player on the squad . . . He was a fine-spirited boy, and was always found in the opponents backfield zig-zagging for tackles . . . Zuccari was placed on the third all-State team and Big Ten honorable mention list.

Brand, Warren—Senior guard . . . Brand was a consistent performer all year . . . He always made his share of tackles, and was in there battling every minute.

Christopher, Ralph—Senior end, but played halfback in part of the games . . . He was a hard-driving player and caught many passes during the season.

Ferrara, Emil—Senior tackle . . . A hard-trying gridder, Emil held down his tackle berth in fine fashion . . . He hit hard, blocked hard, and played hard.

Radcliff, Orval—Junior center, alternating at end late in the season . . . Was outstanding on defense . . . He intercepted many passes . . . Received honorable mention in the Big Ten and should go places next fall.



Knapp, John—Senior back . . . Did most of the blocking, especially after Thomas left the squad . . . And he came through with fine gains on line bucks when necessary.

Hoskins, Paul—Senior back . . . Paul was a fast, hard-driving ball-carrier . . . Was kept out of three games because of injuries . . . He crossed opponents' goal lines many times, being the second highest scorer.

Thomas, Emilio—Senior back . . . Played in only four games . . . He was then dismissed because of the State age limit . . . But while on the squad, Emilio was a rough-and-rugged player.

Albertazzie, Ralph—Senior back . . . He was T. N. T. to most teams, and because of his brilliant running he received the name of "Ramblin' Ralph" . . . Ralph scored most of the Clydemen touchdowns and extra points . . . Did biggest part of the ball-carrying . . . and made the all-Big Ten team.

Howell, Bud—Senior tackle . . . The 200-pound lineman saw very little service, but played hard when called upon for action . . . He was a fine blocker and tackler.

Salvatti, Eugene—Senior guard . . . Salvatti was called upon for reserve duty probably more than any other man . . . He was a fine blocker and tackler . . . and always played hard.

Kelly, Dwight—Junior back . . . He took over the quarterback position vacated by Thomas . . . Ran hard, punged far, and was a stone-wall when blocking . . . Should be great next season.

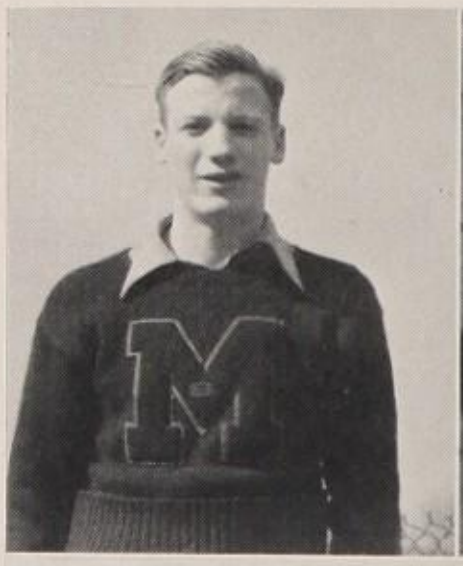
Scott, Jimmy—Senior back . . . Although handicapped because of his half-pint size, Scotty turned in some fine performances . . . and was exceptionally good in the Wheeling battle . . . Was a reserve, but started a couple games.

DeBastiani, Paul—Junior end . . . DeBastiani, a light but scrappy player, saw much action during the season . . . Started out as sub, but gained a starting post soon after . . . He was a hard blocker.

Henderson, Jim—Junior end . . . Alternating with DeBastiani at an end, he proved most valuable to the Clydemen's success . . . Played his post well . . . and is being banked upon again for the '41 campaign.

Jamison, Bob—Sophomore end . . . Bob was a starter when the season got underway, but was forced to the sidelines when he got a broken ankle . . . What he does next year will show his ability.

Wotring, Don—Junior center .. . Big-Arm, as he was called by his mates, should see plenty of service next fall . . . A substitute center, Don moved into a regular pivot berth late in the season.



MORGANTOWN 0—ELKINS 13

Friday Oct. 11 was an unhappy night for the Red and Blue when Elkins High's Tigers stopped Morgantown's winning streak by a 13-0 count. Emilo Thomas, ruled out via the age limit, didn't get to play in that game.

MORGANTOWN 14—WESTON 13

Blasting from behind with 14 points in the final half, the Clydemen bounced back into the win column with a brilliant 14 to 13 verdict over Weston High's Minutemen in a Conference game under the lights at Weston, Oct. 19. Every player was outstanding for Morgantown. Albertazzie and Hoskins scored touchdowns, with the latter converting both extra points on line bucks.

MORGANTOWN 7—WASHINGTON IRVING 19

Hopes for a Big Ten championship dropped in the last quarter of the W. I. game when the Clarksburg team pushed across two touchdowns to send the Red and Blue into 19-7 defeat. Hoskins chalked up the touchdown and Albertazzie converted from placement.

MORGANTOWN 12—WEST FAIRMONT 6

Morgantown and West Fairmont renewed football relationship for the first time in eight years in a Nov. 2 game at Fairmont. Scores by Albertazzie and Hoskins in the first period provided the Clyde warriors with a 12 to 6 triumph.

MORGANTOWN 41—GRAFTON 0

Climaxing their successful season, the Clydemen bowled over a big, sluggish Grafton eleven to a merry 41-0 tune before a homecoming crowd of 2,000 fans. Albertazzie and Hoskins tallied twice, Kelley and Springer once. Albertazzie booted five place-kicks.

Barnes, George—Junior forward . . . Better known as "Jake," the Red and Blue flash was, without doubt, the outstanding player this year . . . He was placed on the All-Big Ten team and received All-State honorable mention . . . Graduating at mid-year, Barnes won't play much next season . . . He led the 1941 scoring.

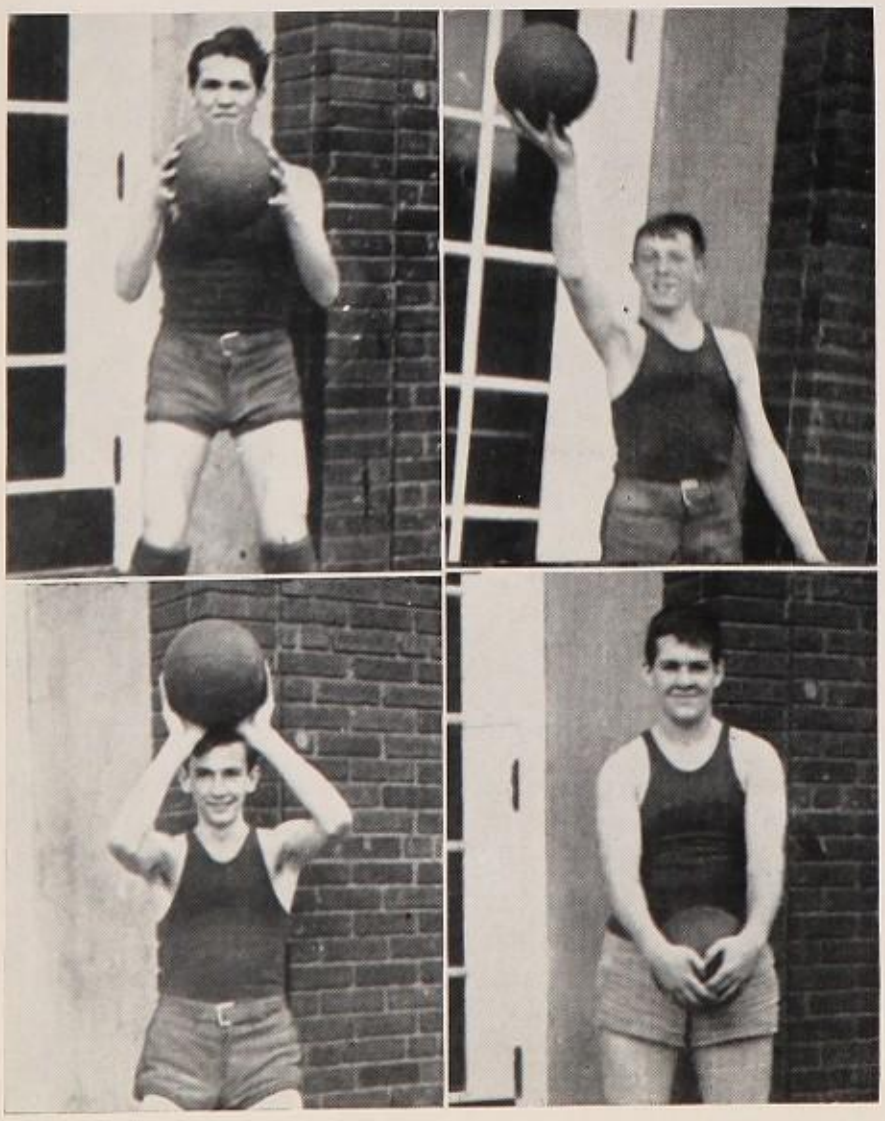
Parsons, Bud—Sophomore forward . . . A smooth-working player, Parsons rated second in point-making . . . He was tricky with the ball and was a good shot . . . With two seasons ahead, Bud should "make the headlines" before graduating.

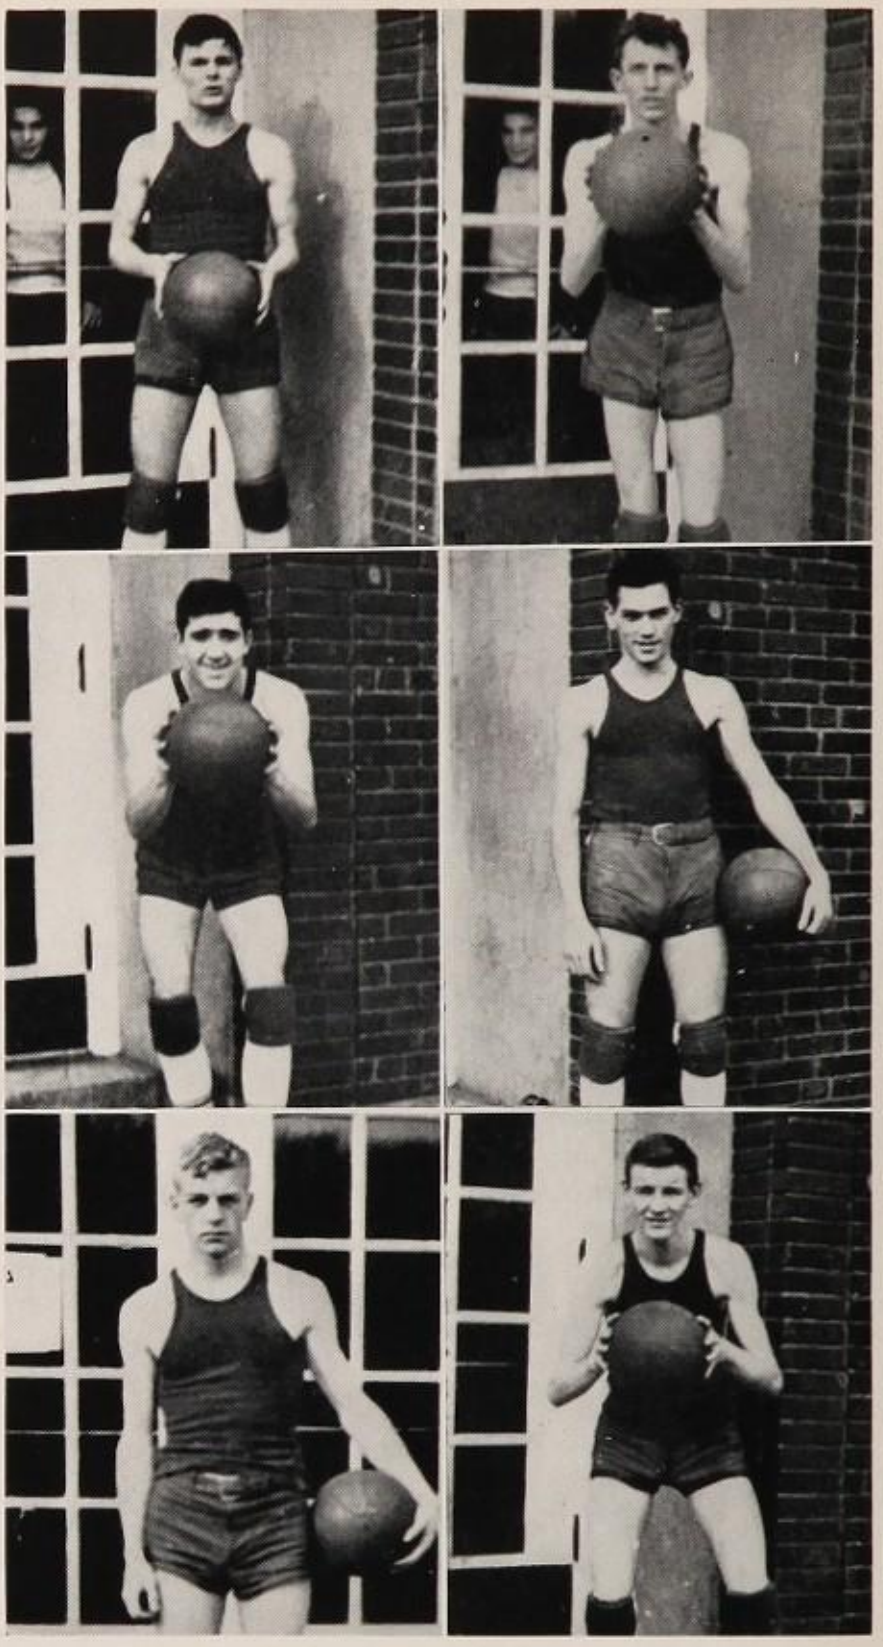
Radcliff, Junior—Junior center . . . Radcliff, who ends his scholastic days at mid-year next winter, won't see much more action . . . He was an "ace" on getting the ball off the back-board . . . and shot from an over-head position mostly.

Vecchio, Patsy—Senior guard . . . He was the best floorman on the quint . . . Was an excellent set-shot artist . . . Handled the ball well . . . and stood out in defense play.

Hall, Don—Senior guard . . . The blond-haired athlete was probably the hardest fighting player on the squad . . . He always fought for the ball and came through with points when needed most.

Chipps, Mack—Junior center . . . Athough a starter early in the season, Chipps fell back into a substitute role as the campaign rolled on . . . He was particularly outstanding in the W. I.-Morgantown game at Clarksburg, tallying 15 points . . . Should be great next winter.



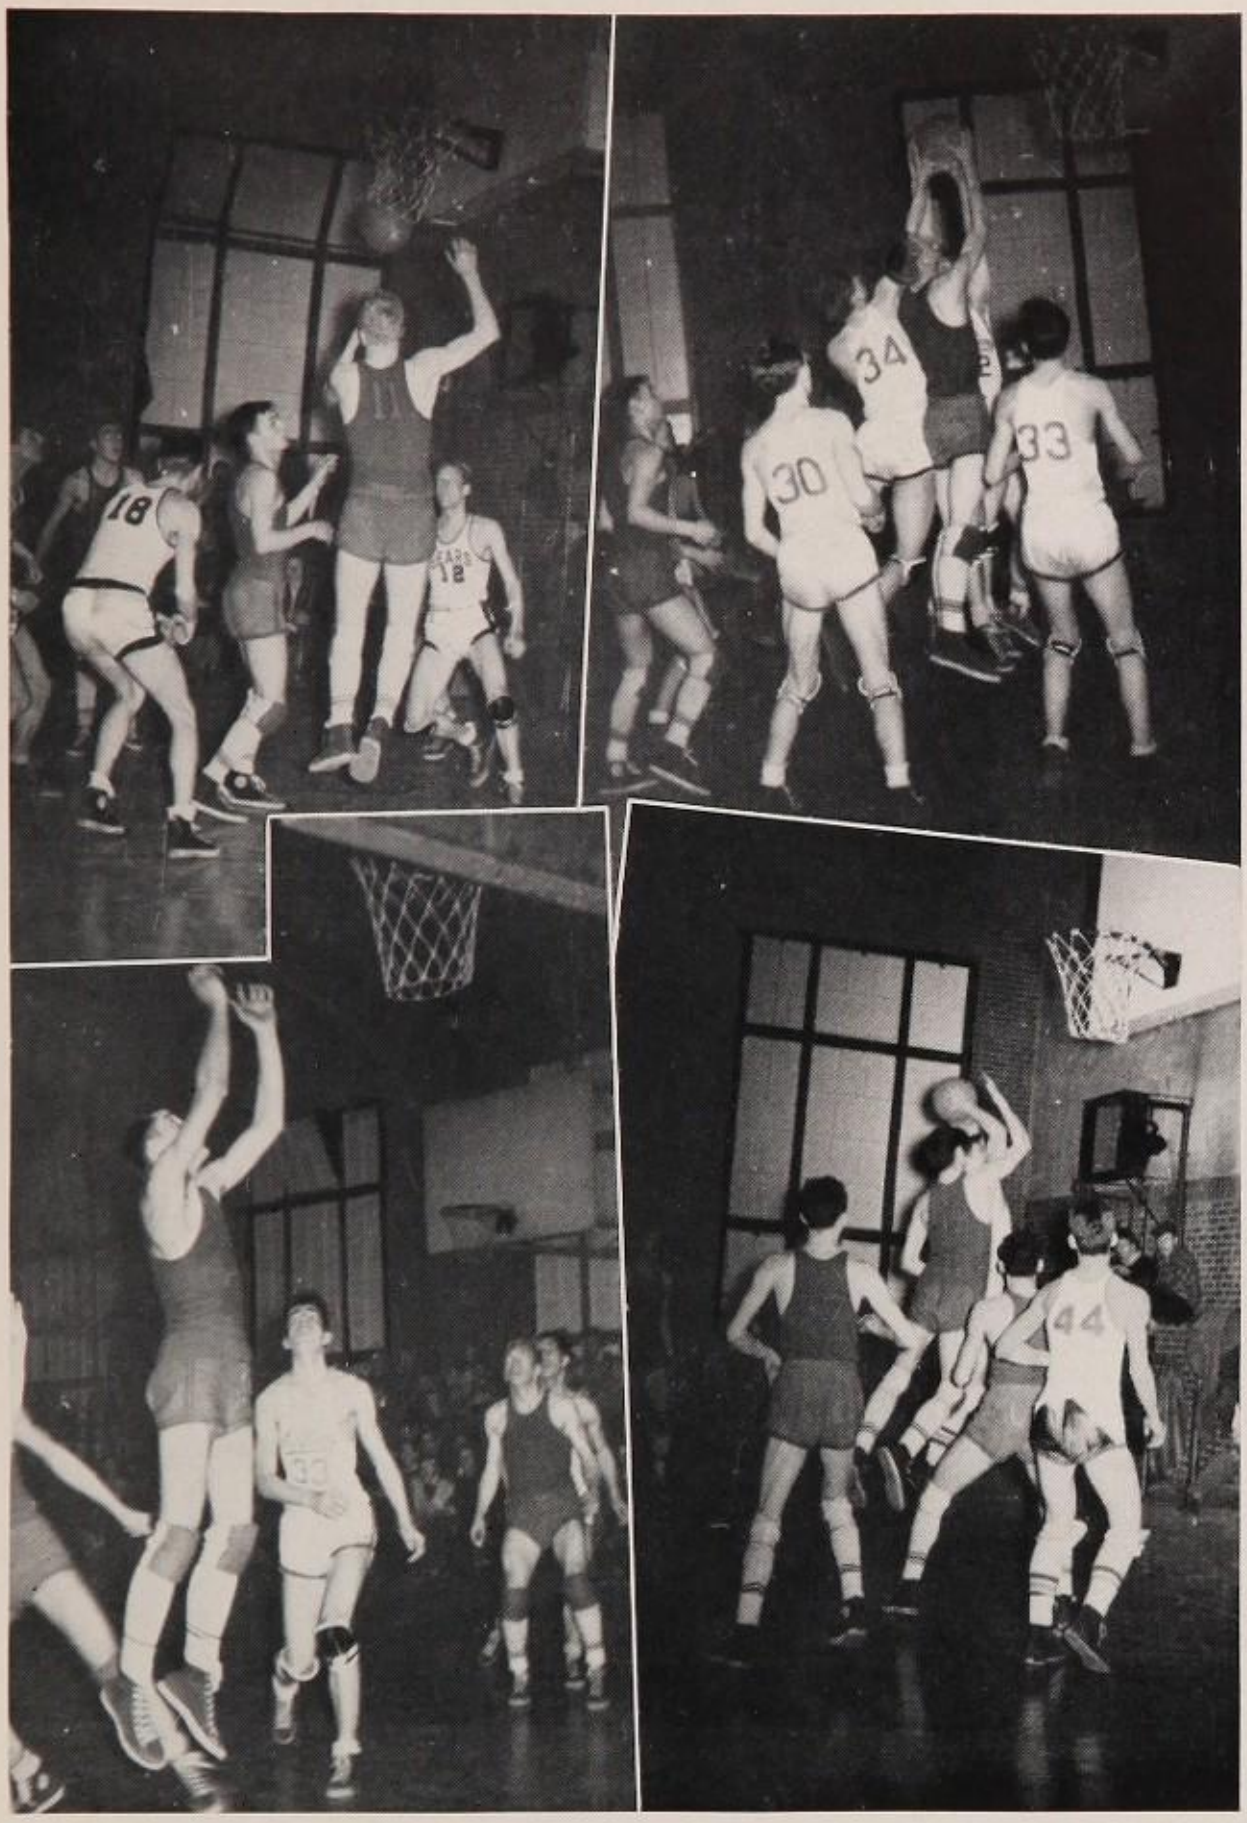


Rogers, Roy—Sophomore guard . . . Rogers saw more service than any other reserve . . . He was a fine set-shot . . . good defensive man . . . and probably will be on the first team in '42.

Feck, Jack—Junior forward . . . Feck didn't play much until late in the season . . . Is a short, fast-moving cager . . . and should be of much help next winter.

Gallagher, Harris—Sophomore center . . . A tall, skinny lad, Gallagher failed to see much playing this season . . . but is expected to go places next year.

Parsons, Charles—Sophomore forward . . . "Lard," as he was called by Red and Blue teammates, was the biggest man on the squad . . . Coach Clyde used him for reserve duty in an effort to give him some experience for years to come.



BASKETBALL

Pre-season over-rating and the lack of co-ordination caused Morgantown High school's 1941 basketball team to go through one of its worst seasons in the school's history. When the smoke cleared away, the Clydemen's record read: 4 wins, 11 defeats.

The Red and Blue cagers started off like a house afire, pounding back a strong Alumni aggregation by a 62 to 55 count before the Christmas holidays. East Fairmont then edged out a 34-33 victory over the locals in the first Big Ten game, and that seemed to be the ruination of Morgantown's season.

Morgantown dropped to Elkins and Weston on a two-day road trip by respective scores of 67-32 and 52-38. Minus the services of George (Jake) Barnes, who was stricken with the flu, the M. H. S. basketeers lost a return tilt at East Fairmont, 25 to 21, and then to Washington Irving at home, 34-28.

The intra-city firing began January 22 when the Red-Blue squad drew first blood with a 28 to 23 win in a slam-bang affair. Patsy Vecchio, senior, was outstanding for the locals in that game.

After playing on even terms for three quarters, Morgantown failed to score in the fourth period and West Fairmont grabbed a 45 to 29 decision in a Big Ten Conference battle at Fairmont. The Polar Bears tallied 14 points in the last period. Grafton's Bearcats thumped Morgantown in Grafton, 49 to 31, three days later.

Probably the best performance of the campaign was the M. H. S. boy's surprising 49 to 31 triumph over Wheeling High's Golds on the South Park court, February 1. Coach Clyde used every man except the water boy in that contest.

A hot Fairmont West outfit blitzkrieged the locals in a return engagement here by a 76 to 40 score, establishing a new high record in conference play. Ken Whisler, visiting forward, tallied 27 points.

After Coach Clyde juggled his lineup to better the M. H. S. offense, the Clydemen registered their only perfect week of play with two fine victories. Weston High Minutemen were turned back by a 50 to 47 count on the home court, then the Red and Blue reversed the tables on Washington Irving at Clarksburg by a 56 to 48 margin. Patsy Vecchio, Barnes, and Chipps led the locals in scoring.

Our "country cousins" from University High came down from the hilltop February 18 and plastered a 46 to 40 overtime defeat on the Red and Blue to even the city series. Elkins made it two in a row by taking a 51-32 verdict here, and Grafton followed with a 50-48 extra period trimph in the season's finale February 28.

In a playoff game to determine the 1941 City Scholastic Basketball Championship, Morgantown walked off with a thrilling 28 to 25 victory as a crowd of more than 1,400 spectators looked on. Jake Barnes was the big gun for the locals. Morgantown was eliminated in the first round of the sectional by Grafton, 46 to 42.

Vecchio and Hall graduate this year, while Barnes and Radcliff will be lost after the first semester next winter. Players back for the entire season are Jack Feck, Bud Parsons, Charles Parsons, Mack Chipps, Roy Rogers, and Harris Gallagher. Barnes was the only M. H. S. cager to be honored for his playing, getting honorable mention in the all-State selections and making the first Big Ten team.

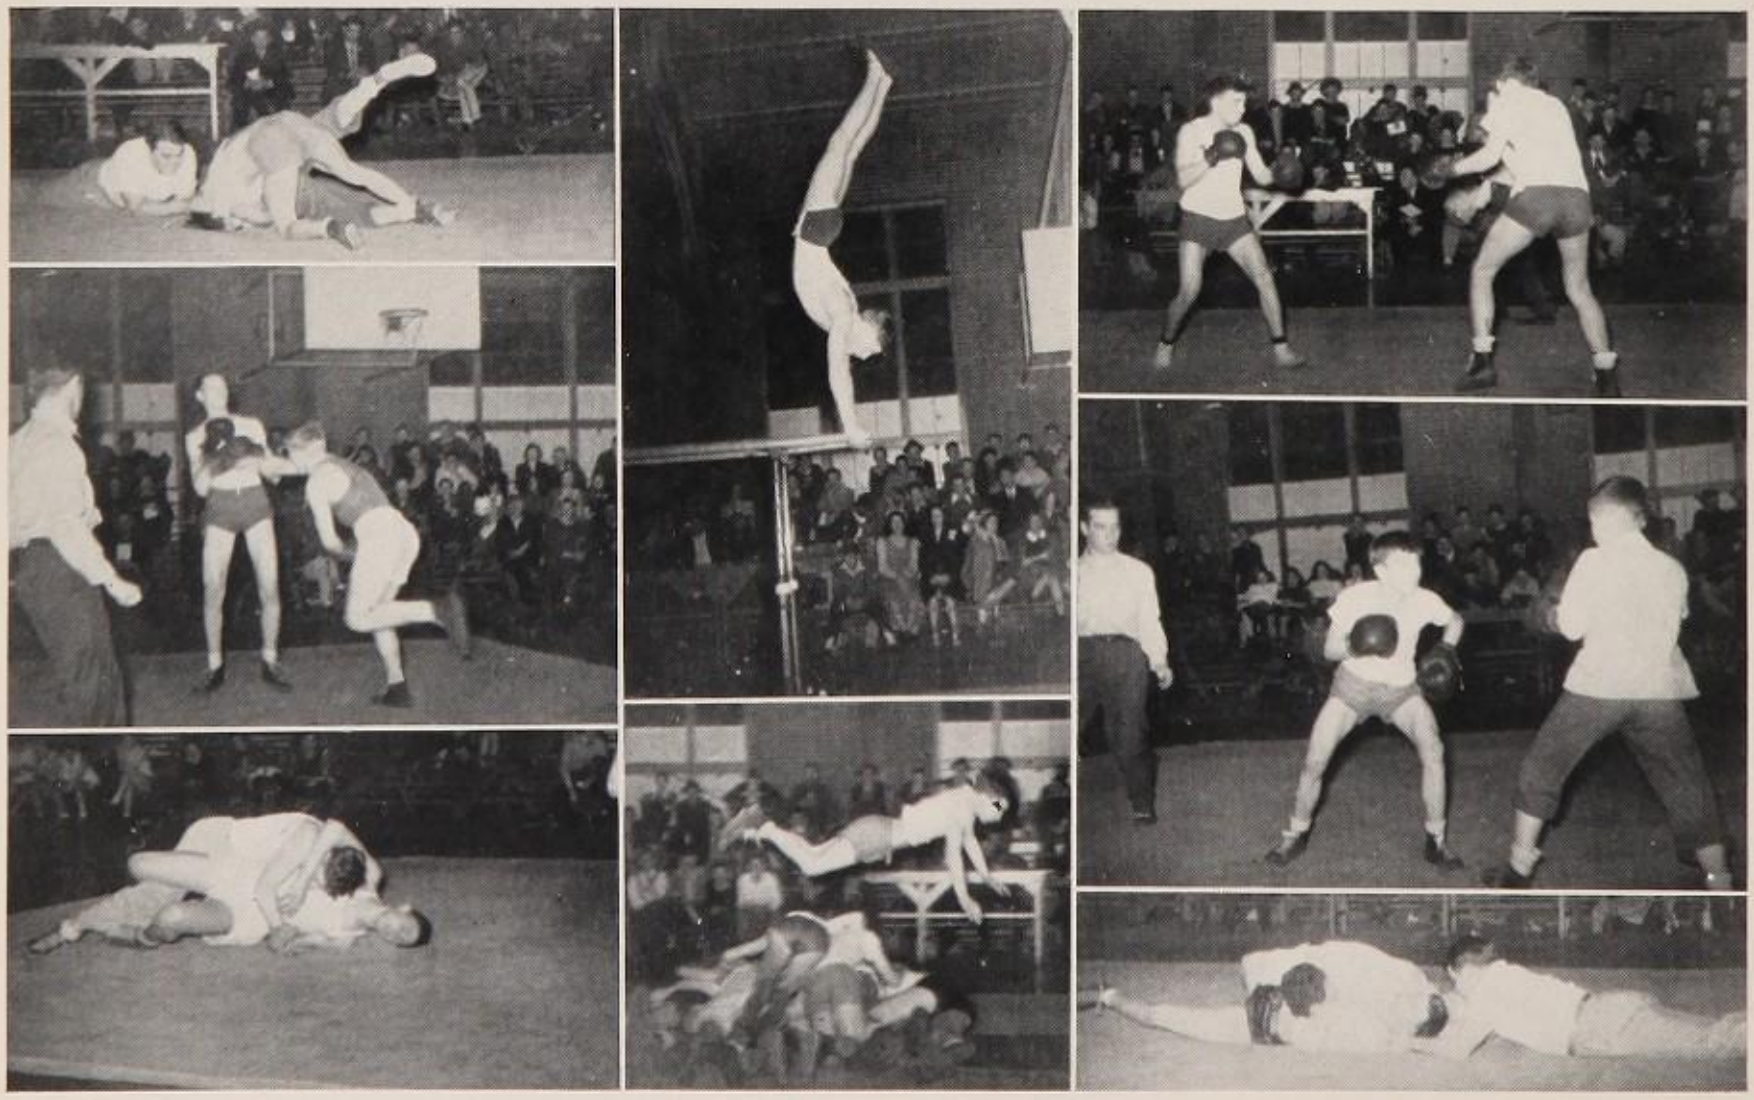
TRACK

Track and field representatives from Morgantown High School have been quite outstanding against State competition the past two seasons. Coach Art Clyde's thinclads beat University High for the city championship in 1940, then swept the Big Ten Conference title before tieing Huntington's Pony Express for the State Track and Field Championship last year.

Although losing six of the seven members from the '40 squad, the Clydemen started the 1941 campaign in fine fashion. Morgantown swamped East Fairmont High School's tracksters by a 79 to 45 margin in the dual meet opener and captured the city crown again by turning back University High, 88 2-3 points to 33 1-3.

Athletes who graduated last year after winning the State Championship were Art McAninch, winner of the 100 and 220 dashes; Eddie Cooper, state half mile champ; Jack Hines, high jumper; Ronnie Moore, hurdler; "Swede" Sharpenburg, quarter-miler; and Steve Tusai, relay man.

Sam Jacobson, the seventh member of the '40 team, was back to aid the Red and Blue this season. He won top honors in the pole vault. Other boys playing outstanding roles in the Morgantown track combination this spring were Bob Baldwin, in the hurdles; Paul Hoskins, in the dashes; Albertazzi, broad jump and discus; George Barnes, broad jump and discus; James Smallridge, half mile; Milliard Brown, mile run; and Dwight Kelly in the pole vault.



BOYS' INTRAMURAL

Intramural Sports directed by Jack Roberts, physical education instructor, was bigger and better than ever this year. About 425 boys participated in the various games including basketball, touch football, wrestling, boxing, kick-pin, golf, table tennis, foul shooting, and softball.

Basketball again proved to be the most popular sport. With 26 teams entered in the three leagues-Club, Independent, and Midget—the Demos Club team was outstanding. Going through the entire season undefeated, the Demos beat the Champs of the Independent League in the Sports Carnival in an exciting extra-period tussle. All -Star teams were picked by Mr. Roberts from the Club League and the Independent League. In the Sports Carnival, the Club All-Stars were victorious.

The Intramural program has been steadily increasing and is becoming more popular each year.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

This year the girls have had a varsity basketball team. The team consisted of Peggy Courtney, Betty Culbertson, and Virginia Livesay as forwards; Marie Dodd, Dorothy Davies, and Maxine Ward fill the guard berths. To date the girls have three victories in five games played.

Opening the season on February 25 at home the Morgantown High team was defeated by University High in the last quarter of the game 28-25. Livesay starred in this game by making high score, eight points. The score was a reversed score of the game played by the boys of these schools the night before.

Again March 7, the Morgantown team bowed. This time to an independent team at Mannington. The score was 22-12.

Morgantown turned the tables to defeat the Mannington team on March 10, as badly as they beat us on March 7, the score, 28-8.

Between games the girls took time out to play the Hi-Y team. Of course the girls were the victors, but we must keep in mind that the boys were playing under a handicap. Girls rules were used. The score was 14-16.

To break the tie of one game each, the Mannington team came to Morgantown. Both teams played a good game and the Morgantown team won only after battling hard in a second extra period to obtain the score of 10-8. Livesay made 5 of the ten points for Morgantown High.

Some of the substitutes who were outstanding were: Ernestine Lewis, guard; Helen Smith, forward; Colleen Jacquet, guard; and Virginia Godfrey, forward.

NOON HOUR RECREATION

The noon-hour recreation period provides a year-round sports program for the lunch and bus students.

Dancing, badminton, volley-ball, and ping-pong are the activities offered. Tournaments have been held this year in ping-pong, volley-ball, and as we go to press, one in badminton is under way.

Virginia Livesay and George Greene were the champions in the mixed double ping-pong tournament. George Barnes' team won the volley-ball tournament.

Music for dancing is furnished by a radio-victrola which has been purchased this year by the school. The drive for the radio-victrola was sponsored by the G. A. A. with the aid of the Red and Blue Journal.

An assembly, directed by Miss June Metz, physical education teacher, was given by boys and girls who attended the noon-hour period. The assembly showed the basic steps for dancing and dancing-technique. Ball room, square, and modern dancing were demonstrated, then a finished performance was given using the steps and techniques illustrated.

MODERN DANCING

The modern dance troupe under Miss June Metz's supervision has launched into a second successful year. The dancers were presented in an assembly with a military theme. In a later assembly they depicted basic steps and rhythms from which they developed a modern dance. As a climax to their activities for the year, the girls devised and interpreted the annual May Festival program. They even turned costumers and emerged in gaily colored attire.

The camera can spot them at their weekly work-outs laboring over, seemingly simple, but very difficult stretches and techniques preparatory to the composition of their routines. Before long they appear in bright costumes and perform with symetrical grace.

A SENIOR'S SAUNTERINGS

Sometimes I wonder if I'll ever see such days again—but how could I forget Journalism class . . . handsome lads and lasses . . . the crocuses 'round the flag pole . . . gee, how swell it was to see Mr. Davis' meaning grin and Liz's big plaid ribbons . . . Oh, how I toiled over English themes and that ignorant feeling I always had in Physics class. But that was long ago . . . I guess I'll never, never forget the fun we had just lingering over cokes, and days so springy we just had to dash to town for ice cream cones. Of course I remember the St. Patrick's Swing and oceans of jokes? ? ? at Junior Jollies and Senior Follies . . . Those endless debates in senior meetings and Brannan's super oratory . . . and Fleming's brilliant comeback . . . how swell it was . . . Satch's sleepy eyes . . . Charlie and his hair . . . Ernest and the way he played his violin . . . and dear old general assemblies . . . Remember Mr. Hastings and his advanced sixth period . . . everybody's saddle shoes and red lipsticks? Mrs. Lipkey's interpretation of poetry . . . Macbeth . . . it gave me the creeps. How nice it seemed to see rival Us & Co. and Hi-Y guys strolling on the lawn . . . The biggest thing that ever happened to me was Commencement . . . the funny feeling I got on the last night with all the gang together . . . when we marched the last mile . . . the last time we sang our farewell song . . . commencement speeches . . . the Senior play . . . marching, marching, marching . . . our post-commencement fling . . . and a lovely ending to a perfect year . . . the Senior Ball! ! ! In my lonely hours I know these will always haunt my reverie. And now we are no longer Seniors . . . but graduates—-alumni.

A BOY

I never understood them,
It wasn't worth my time
I merely talked about them
And all about their line.

They do the dumbest things
Always keep you guessing;
Worrying they always bring,
Yet they're a God-sent blessing.

They're full of love and mush,
Not sweet, nor cute, nor coy,
And yet in spite of all this fuss,
What would I do without a boy!

TRAVELOGUE---"Into The Past"

SEPTEMBER

After much delay, school got started on September 16 . . . Many happy faces bade goodbye to the good old days and looked forward only to months of drudgery . . . School under way and we are assigned lockers on September 18 . . . On September 19, the subscription campaign for the Red and Blue Journal started . . . School activities opened in full swing on September 21 when our second football game of the season resulted in the score 25 to 0 over Kingwood . . . Hooray!! A Coca Cola machine was installed in the school . . . What an improvement! . . . Our first general assembly of the year was held September 26 . . . Wheeling High's Golds were here September 27 . . . So ended the first of the nine months of work, study, and worry . . .

OCTOBER

FLASH! FLASH! On October 4, M. H. S. defeated East Fairmont in the first out-of-town clash of the season . . . On October 11, the Clydemen were defeated by Elkin's Tigers . . . We learned to improve our driving at a special Safety Week Assembly on October 16 . . . The Minute Men of Weston downed Morgantown in a thrilling game on the 18th . . . The A. O. O. initiated new members at a Hallowe'en party on October 25. Everyone had a grand time . . . On October 26, the Red and Blue bowed to Washington-Irving with 19-7 in a Big Ten game . . . An assembly program was given on October 31, sponsored by the Photography Club.

NOVEMBER

HURRAH! The Clydemen defeated West Fairmont in a Big Ten game on November 1 . . .And again another celebration, for we were excused on November 5, Election Day, to meddle in political affairs. . . . Boy's Civic Club gave an Armistice Day Assembly on November 7, and too, many of our teachers attended S. E. A. convention in Huntington . . . We wound up the football season by defeating Grafton 41-0 on November 8, and in celebration, a victory dance was held. Some Fun! . . . Another holiday—we were excused on November 11, Armistice Day . . . And then, sorrow reigned as we took first, third, and fifth period exams on November 14 . . . On November 15 we took our second and fourth period exams, but the main event of the day was the Senior Follies . . . Captain Stern demonstrated the lie detector at a special assembly on November 18 . . . Gobble, Gobble! The seniors held their annual Turkey Hop . . . It was a grand success . . . On November 29, the Thespians, Troupe 27, presented a rousing drama, "Men Must Fight" . . . The Key Club held its annual semi-formal program dance.

DECEMBER

Anchors aweigh! . . . As we sailed with the Hi-Y on their annual minstrel December 6, which, as usual, was a huge success . . . The Us and Co. held an informal party . . . Some fun eh! . . . The G. A. A.'s second annual Mardi Gras, "Santa's Wonderland," was one of the most successful projects of the year . . . It was held December 13 in both gyms . . . Members of the S. O. S. had an informal party in the gym on December 15 . . . The Junior Class presented "Why The Chimes Rang" for an assembly on December 19 . . . Music selections were given by different music groups . . . On December 20, a choral concert was given by the members of the A Cappella Choir, G'r.'s Chorus, and Boy's Chorus. "Why The Chimes Rang" was repeated for the general public . . .

JANUARY

Morgantown High School opened its basketball season by losing to East Fairmont High School here January 3. The score at the end of the game was 38-37 . . . The Senior class entertained at a party in the Girl's gym on January 4 . . . On January 6, students were giving farewells to some of their fellow students who were being whisked away to join the army . . . At a special assembly Karl Maslowski gave an interesting illustrated talk on animal life . . . Hi-Y members and their guests were entertained at an informal party in the Girl's Gym on January 10. Games, dancing, and delightful refreshments were enjoyed by all . . . The Clydemen were beaten by Elkins on January 10 at Elkins . . . To initiate the new members, the National Honor Society held an informal party in the Girls' Gym on January 11 . . . A formal ceremony was held and refreshments were served . . . The M. H. S. tossers lost a thrilling game to Weston High School.

at Weston on January 11 . . . And again on January 17, the Red and Blue Cagers lost . . . This time they bowed to East Fairmont.

The M. H. S. quintet lost to Washington Irving on January 18 . . . Luck changes . . . and to start the ball rolling for the intra-city championship game, Morgantown came out ahead . . . Gloom overtook all students as they slowly went to their 2-4 period exams on January 23 . . . Things looked pretty black on January 24 as 1-3-5 period exams progressed . . . The Clydemen lost to the best team West Fairmont has had in years on January 24 . . . The Home Economics Club entertained club representatives and their guests at a semi-formal dance in the Girl's Gym on January 25 . . . On January 28 Grafton High School beat Morgantown High in Grafton . . . The score was 45-38 . . .

FEBRUARY

The 1941 basketball season got in full swing on February 1 when M. H. S. defeated Wheeling 49-31 . . . On February 4, gloom reigned as West Side defeated the Red and Blue by the huge score of 78-40 . . . All boys were summoned to the Auditorium for an assembly on February 5. The girls were overwrought with curiosity, but it was finally revealed that it was a Coast Guard assembly . . . In celebration of National Drama Week, the Thespians and Drama Classes presented a program including music, dancing, and readings . . . The Demos held their annual dance on February 7. The Hi-Y, Us and Co., and Civic Clubs were invited, and all turned out for the "Jitterbug Jamboree" . . . Morgantown High upset Weston High's Minutemen by 50-46 on the home court, February 11 . . . Orchids to Us and Co. for the annual revue "Go Fly A Kite," which was presented on February 14. That time, however, it was gladiolus from the Hi-Y. Another spectacular event of the day, was the defeat of Washington Irving at Clarksburg by the Clydeman . . . We Limited held an informal party on February 15 . . . On February 18, University High defeated M. H. S. while a full house cheered on. The Clydemen lost with the score tally 46-40 . . . A hilarious time was had by all when the girls dressed as boys and took their best girls to the Girl Reserves Dance on February 19 . . . The Speech, Music, and Journalism classes sponsored a radio broadcast over Morgantown station W. A. J. R. on February 20 . . . Thespians, Masquers, and Drama classes were entertained by Thomas Horwitz who lectured on the subject of theatrical make-up on February 20 . . . On February 21, the Red and Blue were defeated by Elkins in the South Park gym . . . The highlights of the day, February 22, was the annual Sophomore Slouch Dance which was held in the girls' gym . . . The Morgantown boys took the city crown by defeating University High 46-40 on February 24 . . . On February 27, the theme of the general assembly was patriotism. Members of the Drama and Modern dancing classes gave special acts to symbolize the need of patriotism everywhere . . . On February 28, Grafton again defeated the Red and Blue in the last game of the season. Two extra quarters were played before the Grafton Bearcats were victorious with the final score 50-48.

MARCH

Mrs. Bishop's class presented two movies for assembly on March 6. One was about the growing of tobacco and the other was the presentation of Fred Waring's Orchestra and how they prepare for the radio program . . . On March 7, the Masquers presented "Best Years." The play was very enjoyable and a credit to the club . . . The S. O. S. entertained at a party on March 8 in the Girl's gym . . . Maria Gambarelli, premier danseuse, gave a concert on March 10, sponsored by the Community Concert Association in the Auditorium . . . The Boy's gym was decorated with green and white false ceiling and sides March 14 for the St. Patrick's Swing . . . The assembly on March 20 was sponsored by the Journalism classes. It was a quiz program and the Thespians presented a scene from "Spring Dance" . . . March 21, the first day of spring, was just the day for the Thespian production, "Spring Dance" . . . MAY

OH! . . . It's the first day of May and spring is here to stay . . . We hope! . . . A general assembly was held in the auditorium . . . And now comes the spring dances, romances, fun, eh? . . . The Thespians held their dance on May 2 . . . and that isn't all, on May 3 . . . another dance . . . this time by the music groups . . . My, my, this sure is a dance season, for there were three more! . . . The Home Ec. Club held their banquet and dance on May 9, and on May 10, the Pep Society members held their slouch party . . . and then the Demo's held their second dance of the year . . . Some dancing, uh! . . . Oh dear! On May 15, we attended a general assembly . . . and on May 16, the seniors held one of their final activities of the year . . . the senior play . . . It was a big success and all took part in solving the deep mystery in "The Dark House" . . . On May 25 the May Festival was held, and oh my, yes, there was the Junior-Senior Banquet . . . remember how we ate . . . And on the 29th, wasn't that fun practicing marching while the others were still in school? . . . Did you say that you would rather have gone swimming? . . . Well, wouldn't we all? . . . But it was better practicing than studying and we did have fun . . . Well, so much for marching . . . but we couldn't very well forget graduation . . . And the annual Honor Society Banquet was held in honor of the new initiates . . . YIPPEE!!! . . . A holiday . . . We got out of school May 30, you knew, of course, that it was Memorial Day . . . It's June 3, and Seniors were bidding all their classmates farewell, for that was Commencement night, the biggest night of the year . . . Many happy faces say goodby to good old M. H. S. . . . Oh dear! . . . It's June 4 and everyone is getting out of school . . . but we still had the Senior Ball on June 4 to look forward to . . . Well, we have to be closing anyway, we are running out of film.

SENIOR PLAY

Never before had the Senior class tried to present a murder-mystery This "great" performance, "The Dark House," was produced on the night of May 16 at 8:00 p. m. The complications surrounded an ancient, musty house where a queer old millionairess died leaving a vast fortune to her unknown heirs. The cast, under the direction of Miss Gay Bennett, was:

Glenn Chandler	Robert Cox
Grace Gordon	Maxine Shively
Leda Ivans	Virginia Godfrey
Charles Ivans	James Haught
Matilda Pink	Marian Robinson
Professor Scallop	Edward Camisa
Benedict Hazard	Lawrence Bucklew
Mrs. Hunt	Eleanor Spangler
Bates	George Benson
Swannee	Dorothy Davis
Inspector Malloy	Lawrence Falkenstine
Flynn	Larry Pietro
Orville	Carroll Garrett
Director	Miss Gay Bennett

MUSIC ORGANIZATIONS

At noon on Monday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, you can always find the A Cappella, Girls Chorus, or Boys Chorus rehearsing.

The groups have sung before many civic organizations. They presented an operetta, "South In Senora," on April 3 and sponsored an assembly on May 1 and sang at the Class Sermon.

Morgantown High School was represented at All-State Chorus in Huntington on November 5, 6, 7, 8, by the following students: Mary Angotti, Catherine Gibbs, Margaret Bell, Betty Bierer, Dorothy Davis, Leonene Haas, Frank Angotti, Carl Zinn, Porter Zearley, Nat Saffel, and Herbert Glenn. On their return, they added five people to balance the parts and they have sung at club meetings and church dinners. They appeared before the school for the first time on the assembly on May 1.

MAY FESTIVAL

Against a background of laurel and greenery, Betty Lee Snyder was crowned Queen of the May Festival in 1940.

The theme was based on the story of a little princess who wouldn't laugh. Those who tried to make the princess laugh were dancers of the Maypole, Orientals, Jugglers, Gypsies, Waltzers, and Fantasques. Miss June Metz was the director.

The court was composed of Martha Selby, Marian Smith, Geraldine Cunningham, Beatrice Bonfili, Jean Price, Mary Strawn, Jessie Fielder, Priscilla Allen, Kathleen Furman, Ruth Davies, Helen Thompson, Louise Lorentz, Genevieve Martin, Erma June Lloyd, Helen Chittum, and Marilynn Shannon.

OUR HALL OF FAME

CHARLOTTE STRAWSER

Charlotte Strawser won the District elimination for the State High School Oratorical Contest sponsored by the American Legion. She received a scholarship to any college in the state supported by the State Board of Education. She repeated her prize winning oration, "OUR HERITAGE AND ITS PRESERVATION," at the Home Economics convention at Jackson's Mill on the weekend of May 2.

She was also chosen the most outstanding girl in the Senior class by the Daughters of American Revolution this spring. Charlotte has shown abilities in many fields and is a member of the National Honor Society. Orchids to you, Charlotte, and may you have success in future years.

SAMUEL JACOBSON

When the State Federation of Music Clubs held its convention in Morgantown April 3, 4, 5, Sam Jacobson won a piano scholarship to West Virginia University.

Sam is not only a talented pianist but he is also a track star. In addition he boxes and wrestles. The student body has heard Sam perform in general assemblies and he really has what it takes to be a good pianist. Good luck to you, Sam, and may you go far in the music field.

ERNEST LUCAS

Another honor won by a member of the student body was a violin scholarship to West Virginia University awarded to Ernest Lucas. Ernest has been studying violin since he was four years old and has studied with Professor Wood at the University for the last two years, and he has a great deal of talent. He always said he wanted to win a scholarship so he could study violin. Now that he has attained it, we wish him all success.

MRS. CORNELIA WAGGONER

Mrs. Cornelia Waggoner, art instructor here for ten years, was presented with a silver medal, one of two awarded this year by the Eastern Arts Association, because of her distinctive and outstanding work in art education.

She began her career as art supervisor in the grade schools, and also taught in high school in Urbana, Illinois. Later she was an art instructor in the Normal College of Ohio University. Mrs. Waggoner began her teaching here in 1928, as an instructor at the First Ward school for two years. She then came to Morgantown High School and became art supervisor for Morgan District schools and later of all Monongalia County schools.

SENIOR GIFT

The senior class of 1941 presented to the school on February 5, a motion picture camera which was graciously accepted by Principal Scott H. Davis. Jack Fleming, vice-president of the senior class, made the presentation. Mr. Davis in turn presented the camera to Miss Iris McClure sponsor of the Photography Club for immediate use. During the remainder of the term motion pictures were taken of senior activities throughout the school, for a special showing on Class Day June 2. Living up to an agreement made with the senior class of last year, our class paid the remaining one-hundred dollars payment on the motion picture machine and projector which was the gift of the '40 graduation class.

QUILL AND SCROLL

An international honorary society for high school journalists is Quill and Scroll. The group was organized here in April, 1935, when the national society was nine years old. Membership is based on certain achievements in journalism.

Members included: Jack Fleming from last year, John Batlas, Laurence DeLynn, and Fern Hall, Fall initiates; and Anna Belle Covington, Dorothy Davis, Mickey Furfari, Betty Lou Koehler, Mary Mae Lawson, Virginia Livesay, Geraldine Robison, Gertrude Roby, Roger Vandervort, and Marian Wilson, elected this Spring. Miss Teresa Broderick is the adviser.
